

My steps through learning:

What I will know and understand

How I will show that I know it

Steps through Learning Geography: The United Kingdom

Lesson 5

To know about the seas and coastlines of the UK

I can identify the seas which surround the UK

I can use vocabulary relating to seas and coasts

Lesson 3

To know what defines a UK town or city

I can describe differences between a town and a city

I can locate key UK cities on a map

Lesson 1

To know where the UK is in the world

I can locate the countries of the UK on a world map

I can identify the key human features of the UK

What should I already know

- The location of the continents of the world
- Be familiar with the terms of 'culture' and 'economy'
- Be familiar with what is meant by human geography and physical geography'
- Be familiar with compass points and other directional language

Lesson 6

To know about the major rivers in the UK

I can explain the journey of a river from mouth to the sea

I can name the major river systems in the UK

Lesson 4

To know about mountains and hills in the UK

I can explain how hills and mountains are formed

I can identify mountain ranges of the UK

Lesson 2

To know the counties that make up the UK

I can place counties in the UK on a map

National Curriculum:

KS2 - human geography, including: types of settlement and land use, economic activity including trade links, and the distribution of natural resources including energy, food, minerals and water

Ks2 - name, locate and identify characteristics of the four countries and capital cities of the United Kingdom and its surrounding seas

KS2 - use world maps, atlases and globes to identify the United Kingdom and its countries, as well as the countries, continents and oceans studied at this key stage