Dear Parents/Carers,

You are invited to attend our Prince William Award session on Tuesday 16th July from 9.00 - 11.00 am to join in and watch the children being presented with their certificates.

The Prince William Award encourages children to be their best selves. We are taking part in The Explorer level which is designed to demonstrate how certain character attributes can be applied to different situations. This allows children to experience the impact that individuals (especially themselves) make on group performance, how groups can influence decision-making and how the character values can contribute to quality of outcome and the type of decisions reached.

The response from the children in Emerald Class so far has been extremely positive. Those of you who attended our recent class assembly will have seen a snapshot of the activities we have taken part in so far but this is a chance for the children to share their new skills with you directly.

Here is what some of the children have said about the experience so far:

'It helps you to learn the important things in life.' Layla

'You get to have fun and learn some of the most useful skills in life at the same time. I love it!' Fred

We look forward to seeing you there!

Thanks,

Miss Walsh and Emerald Class
