

In English we will.....

Read, compare and write our own myths.
Write a diary entry as a character from a story to infer their feelings.

Make a comic strip set in ancient Egyptian times.

Use hot seating to explore characters and their actions.

Build arguments for or against and use drama to demonstrate our arguments.

Write a letter to respond to an event in a text.

In computing we will.....

Write algorithms to make characters of and create our own mazes.

Look at how computer networks work and create our own in class.

Think about how to stay safe online.

In P.E. we will....

Develop our skills in multisports.

Learn and develop invasion games techniques, including throwing, catching, defending and moving into spaces.

In Maths we will...

Secure our times table knowledge and counting in multiples.

Know and name the value of digits in up to 4 digit numbers.

Order and compare numbers.

Count backwards including negative numbers.

Add and subtract with up to 4 digits in column method.

Multiply 2 and 3 digit numbers in a formal method.

'Pharaohs and plains'

Ancient Egypt

Amber Class Autumn 2016

In Art and DT we will...

Make death masks and use resources to make parts stand out.

Use clay to make canonic jars for storing organs.

Sketch historic landmarks in Egypt with pencils and charcoal.

In RE we will....

Look at Christianity and compare and contrast to other religions with the links to 'following the leader' and 'Remembrance.'

In Science we will....

Explore the states of matter, how they look, how they change and why and investigate the changes that take place through experiments.

Look at the river Nile and the water cycle and why it is so important to Egypt and the links with states of matter.

In History we will....

Study the ancient Egyptians.

Investigate Pharaohs, Gods and Goddesses and what they symbolised.

Explore the use hieroglyphics to record events and daily life.

Write as a slave in ancient Egyptian times.

Create a God or Goddess of our own to represent something important..

In Geography we will...

Look at farming and irrigation in ancient times.

The landscape of Egypt and how the Nile is important in all areas of life.

Look at the climate in Egypt and around the world.

Link with Science at the water cycle and how the landscape is important.